

RC - RECREATOR CERTIFIED POLICY, APPLICATION & PAYMENT FORM

I. GOAL OF CERTIFICATION

The basic purpose of the Board's certification program is to assure the general public and employing agency of the competence of recreation and park professionals by certifying that they meet prescribed standards. The Recreator Certificate is designed to certify that an individual is qualified by education and experience to conduct, administer and manage recreation services.

II. REQUIREMENTS

Option 1. Baccalaureate or Graduate Degree in Recreation/Recreation Management/ Tourism

Option 2. Baccalaureate or Graduate Degree in a related field such as MBA/ Kinesiology/ Psychology/ Arts/ Recreation Therapy, etc and a minimum of 3 years full time experience in the field of Recreation and Leisure

III. EXAMINATION AND CERTIFICATION DETAILS

The California Board of Recreation and Park Certification examination in General Knowledge, Recreation is given (2) times a year; once in the spring and once in the fall at a number of locations throughout the state. The examination is entry level 98 multiple choice questions developed by educators and practitioners. The examination 2 hours, though most people are able to complete it within an hour. Need 70% and above to pass. After the application has been reviewed by committee and approved, the applicant will be provided with a notice to sit for the examination and an additional fee will be due at that time. The applicant can postpone taking the exam for 2 years, after that time, the application expires and the application must go through the entire process as a new applicant and pay all fees.

Once the applicant successfully passes the examination, the certification is valid for a two-year period in which the certificant is to earn 2.0 CEU's. A renewal notice will be emailed; the renewal form will only be available on the cbrpc.org website. The certificant completes the form; shows proof of 2.0 CEU's and pays a nominal fee. The renewals are each reviewed through a committee process; results are mailed out immediately following the meeting.
